

Quick Facts

Approximately 150 homes and 20 businesses flooded in Fort Vermilion

Over 450 people fled their homes when the Peace River overflowed

The flood's damage could cost over $45 million to the northern Alberta hamlet

The flooding became a second state of local emergency in addition to the COVID-19 pandemic

The community has likely not experienced flooding this severe since 1934

Samaritan's Purse Canada's Response FORT VERMILION, ALBERTA

26
Mud-Outs

36
Content Removals

36
Homes Sanitized

49
Families Assisted

137
Volunteers

365
Volunteer Days Worked